ABOUT THE HOST

When you ask Joyce about how this journey started as she smiles with enthusiasm “Years ago I just happened to flip the channel and caught one of the Issues and Artists programs. Being very excited I developed some ideas for future shows and just took a chance by contacting the producer Mr. Joe Amos. The rest of the story is history.” Deep down within, it was always Joyce’s personal passion to connect people in a loving way to topics that matter: positive news, politics, entertainment, and art education.

Brassy, professional, yet lovable, Joyce Renee Walker’s interviewing skills have managed to bring notoriety, credibility and popularity to the Issues and Artists show. As a speech major armed with a Bachelors Degree in Communications from the University of Illinois, Joyce brings her expertise and polish to the stage when connecting with some of the most powerful people in the City of Chicago. As a result, she has managed to foster long standing relationships with many celebrity guests including Alderwoman Dorothy Tillman, music attorney Kelvin Bulger, legendary artist Melvin King (www.melvinking.net), and internationally recognized choreographer Michael Jones. Joyce is becoming a star in her own right as she not only empowers and uplifts the show’s audience, but the featured guests as well.

Celebrating its 5th year anniversary in 2012, the future holds tremendous promise and excitement for the Issues and Artists under Joyce’s direction. She will bring her singer-speaker talent into the hearts and homes of faithful followers and newcomers alike. A member of the church choir since age six, Joyce was predestined to share with the world her incredible musical talent as a jazz, rhythm and blues singer.
